

PHISHING SCAM ALERT

One of our members received an email purportedly from the president of APA seeking financial information. This is a phishing email—do NOT respond or click on any of the links. As always exercise caution and do not disclose personal information, account login details or financial information. If in doubt, please check with the APA secretariat directly.